Bachelor Program

Preparatory Year

Immersion in the world of hospitality and an operational internship
The goal: To inculcate our commitment to excellence, our savoir-faire and savoir-être, and to provide the hands-on experience needed for a future career in management.

You will work in small teams and pursue a wide range of courses. You will be exposed to a variety of operational tasks in a hospitality context and acquire an understanding of the managerial responsibilities involved. For example, you will work in the kitchen, the bakery and the bar, and will gain practical experience in organizing banquets. You will also work alongside the staff in our gastronomic restaurant — rated 15/20 in the Gault & Millau guide — and acquire an appreciation of "haute cuisine" and service excellence.

You will study a broad range of academic subjects — ranging from food science to oenology — thus expanding your knowledge of the hospitality sector.

The preparatory year culminates in a six-month operations internship.

Year 1

Management fundamentals
The goal: Acquire the basic skills that you will need in your future role as a manager.

Courses focus on fundamental hospitality management concepts: accounting, economics, marketing, human behavior, legal risk and operational management. You will start working on group projects to develop your interpersonal and leadership skills. You will follow courses in academic writing and foreign languages to enhance your communication skills.

By the end of the year, you will have acquired a set of core decision-making skills that will enable you to deal effectively with day-to-day management challenges.

Year 2

Skills enhancement and management internship
The goal: To further develop your leadership and management skills and put them into practice. Year 2 consists of two distinct semesters.

In the first semester, you will build on the knowledge acquired in Year 1 and will continue to study the same subjects at a more advanced level. Teamwork will continue to be an integral part of your studies, providing you with the skills needed to be an effective team member in your future career.

In the second semester, you will have the opportunity to put your knowledge into practice in a real work environment. You will complete a six-month administrative or managerial internship, in a function such as marketing, finance, human resources or events management, often abroad. This hands-on work experience will provide you with the necessary grounding for your final year at EHL.

Year 3

Integration and final degree project
The goal: To bring together all the skills, knowledge and experience acquired since your Preparatory Year.

During the first semester, you will have a broad range of hands-on learning opportunities. You will study strategic management and participate in practical case studies, often interacting with industry experts who will provide you with valuable advice.

In the second semester, you will choose six-week optional courses in the areas that interest you most. You will then complete the program with a nine-week final degree project.

Final degree project
Two options are available:

1. A student business project:
   You will join a team of five students tasked with providing a consulting service to an external client.
   The tasks assigned by such clients are extremely varied. They range from market studies to process audits to the creation of new catering concepts. To date, over 70% of students have seen their proposals put into action by the client.

2. An individual applied research project:
   Your task will be to find a solution to an industry-specific problem using both qualitative and quantitative research methods. You will be supervised by an experienced faculty member, who will coach you in the methods needed to successfully complete your project.

Fees for students eligible according to the A-HES Intercantonal Agreement of 12 June 2003

The financial agreement between the Ecole hôtelière de Lausanne and the HES-SO (Haute Ecole Spécialisée de Suisse Occidentale) states that the HES-SO will cover part of the tuition fees of eligible students. According to this agreement, tuition fees for the students concerned are limited to CHF 1,000 per academic year, the remainder being paid by the HES-SO. This measure becomes effective as from the first year of the HES-SO Bachelor of Science in International Hospitality Management. It does not apply to the Preparatory Year, which is not covered by this agreement.

As well as students with Swiss nationality whose parents live in Switzerland, students are also eligible if, at the time they register, they fulfil one of the following conditions according to the A-HES intercantonal agreement (see below):

- Students with Swiss nationality who have parents living abroad, or whose mother and father are deceased and who live abroad
- Refugees and stateless persons of age assigned to a canton in Switzerland, whose mother and father are deceased or whose parents are living abroad
- Foreigners of age whose civil residence is in Switzerland, whose mother and father are deceased or whose parents are living abroad
- Foreign students of age who have lived permanently for at least two years in Switzerland, where they have had paid employment giving them financial independence, without undertaking a training course at the same time
- Foreign students whose parents' civil residence or whose guardians' headquarters (if relevant) is located in Switzerland.

In exceptional cases, students whose parents live in the Geneva border zone and who have at least one parent working in the Canton of Geneva may benefit from this measure.

The questionnaire determining the granting of A-HES status will be sent to students one month before the start of the academic year. Only the HES-SO has the authority to determine a student's status.

If a student abandons his or her studies or changes A-HES status for any other reason before 15 October or 15 April, depending on the half-year in progress, the HES-SO will stop contributing to tuition fees.

1. Tuition

Tuition fees concern an academic year. Swiss or eligible students benefit from a subsidy on the tuition fees based on the agreement with the HES-SO (see box overleaf). Every course has exams that can be retaken; the cost of any retakes is extra.

2. Flat Rate for Communal Services

This fee includes:

- The right to access different restaurants and bars, including reductions for all meals
- The right to access sports facilities and sports activity training

3. Prepaid Food and Beverage Account (based on consumption)

At the beginning of each academic year, student cards are charged with a mandatory amount, considered as the minimum a student will spend on food and beverages. This card can be used in the various points of sale on campus. The prepaid amount must be used before the end of the academic year and is not refundable. As part of the institution's social responsibility policy for the education of students with financial difficulties, any remaining amount at the end of the semester is transferred to EHL's scholarship fund. Students can recharge their card at any time.

4. Mandatory Health Insurance (legal obligation)

A basic health and accident insurance is mandatory by law in Switzerland. Students whose fiscal residence is outside Switzerland (or whose parents' fiscal residence is outside Switzerland) at the time they start their studies at EHL are automatically enrolled in EHL's accident and insurance plan. It is possible to be exempted from this insurance coverage by providing sufficient proof of adequate coverage to the Swiss authorities. Students whose fiscal residence is in Switzerland need to provide the school with a copy of their current insurance plan.

5. Swiss Authorities

Administrative taxes are collected by the Swiss authorities for those persons who are in possession of a residence permit or valid visa. These may include other communal and cantonal fees. Amounts may vary according to the nationality of the student. Swiss authorities require students from outside the EU/EFTA to make an initial payment of CHF 18,000 before submitting a visa application. This amount will be deducted from their first invoice.
